• Your role as a student
• Academic resources
• Academic deadlines
• Opportunities outside of the classroom
What is my role as your advisor

• Help you develop an educational plan consistent with your goals
• Provide and explain general educational requirements
• Monitor and discuss issues of concern regarding your academic progress
• Recommend opportunities for personal growth and academic development
• Refer you to specific campus or community resources
Your role as a student

- To complete and review an educational plan.
- To monitor your progress towards your degree
- To come prepared with questions regarding curriculum, course selections, career options, etc. to discuss with your advisor
- To know your advisor’s office hours and email for individual consultations
- To understand that the advisor’s role is to give you information, and options for you to choose the path best for you.
- To let the advisor know when you are experiencing academic difficulty
Suggestions for Success

• Get a planner and use it.
• Write down your goals for the first semester and hang them on a surface where you will see them every day. Set high goals!
• Stay focused on your goals.
• Being a student is a full time job with some overtime, 40 – 48 hours/week.
• Avoid distractions such as computer games & social media.
• Ask questions. If you don’t understand the answer, ask again, or ask someone else.
Suggestions (con’d)

• Attend all classes.
• Complete all homework. On time!
• If you suspect you are in trouble, ask for help.
• Study in groups, perhaps one group per course.
• Be kind to yourself. Eat properly, make friends, exercise.
• Keep your parents informed of your progress.
• Check this out: Ready... Set... Calculus at http://calculus.math.rpi.edu/rsc/
What you need to succeed?

• Online Course Catalogue - all the information you need about your major, requirements, course descriptions, etc.
  http://www.rpi.edu/academics/catalog/

• Curriculum Advising Planning Program (CAPP) Report - tracks your degree progress (SIS) ***

• Transcript - includes AP & transfer credits

• Course Syllabus - read it and write down all of the important dates (tests, quizzes, hw)

• Network with your department. Get to know your professors, who they are, what they are interested in.

How are courses going?

• If you feel overwhelmed with the courses you have, come see me.
• If you are taking a higher level math or science and the pace is too fast, come see me. We might want to switch courses.
• Every Course should provide a syllabus- outlining the course, topics, and grading criteria. Any questions?
• Any problems with online submissions, HW?
Calculus 1(math 1010)
